Today's Service: A warm greeting to you this morning as we gather for worship and praise. We hope you feel at ease here and find renewal and hope for the week ahead. A nursery is available and Children's Church (ages 3-10) will be dismissed during the service. Stay after for a few minutes and enjoy the coffee and snacks!

Membership Class: If you are thinking about becoming a member of Cross-Point Church, you are encouraged to attend a new members class that begins next Sunday, October 23, during the Sunday School hour (9:00-10:00 am). The class will meet for three consecutive Sundays and nursery is provided. Please sign up at the Information Table if interested. Questions? Just ask Pastor Gary.

Sunday, October 30....Don't Miss It!

- New Sunday School Class: "The Me I Want To Be" is a powerful five-session study that reminds us how God intends for us to be unique, fully alive and flourishing Christians. This 5-week study is an encouragement wherever you are on your spiritual journey, and will meet in Room 1 during the Sunday School hour beginning October 30th.
- Communion: As a conclusion to the "Ekklesia" sermon series, we'll celebrate God's gift of the sacrament of Communion together.
- Harvest Potluck: After communion, let's celebrate community by enjoying a "Harvest Potluck" in the fellowship room. If your last name begins with A-L, please bring a main dish and a dessert. Last names M-Z are asked to bring a main dish and a side dish such as a salad, veggies, etc.

Sharing & Caring

Spend some time thanking God for the change of seasons and the beauty of creation.

Eileen Chilton is in St. Louis visiting her sister Jean Evans, who is quite ill. Pray for both Eileen and Jean as they spend this time together.

Now that she's no longer in Seattle during the week, Linda VanderSys has come back on board as our Worship Coordinator. This means that she is the "go to" person if you have an interest in helping out with our worship either by participation on a praise team, in the sound booth, or on the computer. Please pray for Linda and thank her for all she does!

Prayer Postings

October 16, 2011

Jean Calman, president of our Nazarene Mission's International team (NMI), is currently searching for a short-term mission project that we could send a group of adults and teens on. (Our denomination calls this a "Work & Witness Team".) We would like to do that this coming summer. Please pray for God's leading in this and begin praying whether God would have you participate once plans begin to fall in place.

Continue to pray for those in our church who deal with chronic pain or illness, that God will provide extra strength and encouragement.

Missions

The first Church of the Nazarene in Belgium is being started. Pray for Pastor Ashley Slinger and his wife, Meeike, who will lead the church. Pray that more people will come to their Sunday Bible study and that the ministry of this church will be fruitful in their community.

Pray for everyone attending the Eurasia Regional Conference this week. Nazarenes from across the Eurasia Region are gathering to celebrate "One Spirit, One Legacy, One Hope, One Mission." Pray that the Lord's presence is manifest in a mighty way during the conference and as participants return home to their families and ministries.

Welcome!
